Lead Financial Stewardship That Supports Communities
IFN of Ontario is seeking a Finance Manager who is ready to take the lead in strengthening financial operations and supporting responsible, transparent stewardship of resources.
This isn't just a finance role, it's an opportunity to contribute to meaningful work that supports programs, funding, and initiatives that directly impact First Nation communities.
If you are detail-oriented, collaborative, and driven by purpose, this role offers the chance to make a real difference through your expertise.

What You'll Be Part Of
- Leading financial operations that support programs and funding agreements
- Strengthening financial reporting, budgeting, and accountability practices
- Working closely with leadership to support informed decision-making
- Contributing to strong financial systems that support long-term sustainability

What You'll Bring
- Experience in financial management, accounting, or a related field
- Strong understanding of budgeting, reporting, and financial controls
- Experience working with funding agreements or public sector environments
- Proficiency in accounting systems (e.g., QuickBooks) and Excel
- Strong attention to detail and organizational skills
- Ability to communicate financial information clearly to non-financial audiences
- A commitment to accuracy, accountability, and meaningful work

Why This Role Matters
This role plays a key part in ensuring financial integrity and accountability across the organization. Your work will support the sustainability of programs and initiatives that serve First Nation communities , helping ensure resources are managed effectively, transparently, and with purpose.

How to Apply
Interested candidates are invited to submit their resume and cover letter outlining their qualifications and experience to dianemn@ifnc.ca.

Competition open until September 17, 2026 at 5:00 PM EST. Only those selected for an interview will be contacted
